Official Site, English I am a lifelong student of the Bible, from a conservative Baptist background. I love reading it, doing it, discussing it, and teaching it! I love having conversations with people about it, and I love soaking in God's Word, letting it change my life. My Why is to be a catalyst for change in churches and church life and a champion for the message of the gospel. I want people to go from seekers to believers, to be able to tell people about Jesus Christ, who He is, and what He has done. I don't want people to feel like they've done their
